DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. In order to avoid abandonment, the drawing informalities noted in Paper No. 4, mailed on September 25, 2003, must now be corrected. Correction can only be effected in the manner set forth in the above noted paper.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-9 and 11-35 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach nor fairly suggest an apparatus for feeding to an automated analyzer a bulk quantity of vessels each having an elongated body with a first end and a second end, comprising: a frame structure having two upright side plates connected in a spaced-apart parallel relationship; means supported by said frame structure for transporting said vessels along a path, including an elevator chain driven by a drive sprocket, and a multiplicity of scoopers carried by said elevator chain and each configured to transport said vessels in an horizontal orientation; a vessel hopper attached to said frame structure for receiving said bulk quantity of vessels and supplying them to said scoopers carried by said elevator chain; a sorting and orienting mechanism, mounted on said frame structure at a location adjacent to said path and intercepting said vessels carried by said scoopers; said sorting and orienting mechanism, including a first ram for engaging said first end of said vessels carried by said scoopers if said first ends of said vessels are facing said first ram, and ejecting such vessels one at a time from said scoopers into a guide; said sorting and orienting mechanism, including a second ram for engaging said second end of said vessels carried by said scoopers if said second ends of said vessels are facing said first ram, and ejecting such vessels one at a time from said scoopers into a guide; an escape mechanism mounted to said frame and connected to said guide for receiving said sorted and oriented vessels and dispensing them one at a time; and means for controlling and coordinating the movement of said transporting.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
